

Our

Penguin Parade

fundraising target

£1,600

sponsors a Registered Nurse for the 12 days of Christmas, so they can help the people they care for make the most of what could be their final Christmas with their loved ones.

£500

pays to train a nurse or healthcare assistant for a year, so they have the knowledge and expertise to give quality care to those who need it.

£390

sponsors a hospice bed for a day, meaning someone living with a terminal illness can get expert care when they need it most.

£180

allows a nurse to provide expert care and emotional support for someone living with a terminal illness for a full nine-hour shift.

£

£98

pays for 3 calls to our Support Line, meaning someone in need can pick up the phone and receive practical information and emotional support.

pays for a bereavement counsellor to support someone who's grieving for an hour.

Thank you!
